

DATE NIGHT CONVO STARTERS

CONVERSATION STARTERS

Take turns asking each other questions from this list. Don't be afraid to let the conversation continue.

What was your all-time favorite Christmas or Birthday gift?

Tell me a story about your 3rd grade class.

If you had a walkout song, what would it be and why?

Was your family ever involved in community service? If so, was it considered an obligation or a privilege?

What topic do you wish you knew more about?

What specific rooms, pieces of furniture, colors or designs made an impression on you in your childhood home?

Name a special memory you cherish about our early days that had nothing to do with the big events of our relationship. Why is that memory so special to you?

What was going through your mind on our first date?

What were some of your impressions of the day we got engaged?

LIGHTENING ROUND

You're answering these about each other! Answer these with the first thing that comes to mind.

What is something I say a lot?

What did I want to be when I grew up?

What makes me happy?

What is one of my talents?

How tall am I?

What is my phobia?

What's my favorite thing?

What color are my eyes?

What do I do when you're not around?

Where do I want to travel?

What is my favorite food?

What foods do I absolutely hate?

What is my favorite restaurant?

Cats or dogs?

What's my shoe size?

What do I like on pizza?

What's my favorite holiday?

What is my go-to drink order?

What's my favorite animal?

What is my favorite season?

What is my favorite show?

What annoys me?

What is my favorite drink?

Do I have any allergies?

FINAL QUESTIONS

You're both answering these questions as you wrap up.

What is one thing you learned about me during social distancing that you didn't know before?

What is one thing I did for you this week that made you feel loved?

What is one way I can support you this coming week?

